RE: KILLING OF NORWEGIAN HOSTAGE BY TERRORISTS IN KASHMIR

SHRI INDER KUMAR GUJRAL (BIHAR): Madam, I rise with a great deal of sadness to mention the dastardly, brutal murder of the Norwegian citizen, Mr. Hans Christian Ostro, at the hands of the so-called terrorists in Kashmir.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Why 'so-called'? They are terrorists.

SHRI INDER KUMAR GUJRAL: No. I am saying this because it is sponsored. I think they have been deputed to do it and that is why I am saying so. And, I think, I am expressing the feelings of yourself and the House when i extend my sympathy and condolences to the bereaved family and also to our very friendly country, Norway.

Mr. Ostro was a man of remarkable talent, a young man who had come to India to learn Kathakali dance and had mastered the technique, and was building bridges of understanding between Norway and India, making them even stronger.

For nearly two months now, we have been seeing that these four or five citizens from various countries remained kidnapped. They are still in the custody of the kidnappers. They have suffered a lot. Going by the brutality inflicted on Mr. Ostro, we can see the type of treatment that they are being given. They are citizens of various countries—United States, U.K. and Germany. This sponsored terrorism, I say again, is something that causes us concern not only in this country—and it has been causing us concern for quite some time now—but, I think, it should cause concern now to all those countries, not only those who citizens are in captivity but also to the world as a whole, which should really decide—and, I think, the U.N. Resolution is there—to try to do something about the spread of terrorism.

Some time ago, one leading member of the Pakistani Parliament, the Chairman of the Foreign Affairs Committee, who was also, to my knowledge, the representative of Pakistan in the United Nations' last Session, Maulana Fazlur Rehman, had come here. He had said in the Press that he could act as an intermediary and that he could act as a 'contact' person to get something done for the release of these people, provided the Government of India approached him. I appreciate the government India's refusal to accept this bait. At this time I also want to know whether he got in touch with the Government of India. What reasons did he give when he applied for a visa? Why did he want to come here; I would also like to
